

Code of Ethics for Beach Club Users

1. Respect and coexistence

- All members should treat each other with mutual respect, regardless of their differences of opinion, beliefs, or affiliations.
- Any type of harassment, discrimination or offensive behavior is prohibited.

2. Use of the facilities

- Club facilities must be used appropriately and respectfully.
- Any damage caused to the facilities must be reported immediately and may lead to financial liability.
- The use of facilities for purposes that go against the club's rules will not be allowed.

3. Rules of behavior

- All members are expected to maintain appropriate and polite conduct within the club.
- Conduct that threatens the safety or well-being of other members or club staff will not be tolerated.

4. Compliance with club rules

- All members must comply with club regulations, including schedules, specific regulations for activities and events.

5. Privacy and confidentiality

- Members must respect the privacy of other users. No photography or video recording will be allowed without prior consent.

6. Drugs

- The use of illegal drugs is strictly prohibited within the club's facilities.

7. Conflict resolution

- In case of disagreements or conflicts between members, a peaceful resolution must be sought.

8. Penalties

- Failure to comply with this Code of Ethics may result in warnings, temporary sanctions, or permanent expulsion from the club, depending on the seriousness of the infraction.

9. Social Responsibility

- Club members must act in a way that promotes an inclusive and supportive environment, ensuring the common well-being and integrity of the club.